

Dear Teacher,

Following the success of The Night Queen, Hoopla's new play Three Witches comes to the Belgrade Theatre in October.

Brother and sister Roy and Beth arrive at the castle where Macbeth was once King. There they meet Hagwitch, the castle Keeper. She challenges them to spend the night and lift the ancient curse. But the Three Witches are up to their old tricks. Will Roy and Beth succeed or will their rivalry stop them?

An original and accessible story using themes and settings from Macbeth, the play is ideal for KS2. Those of you who joined us for the adventures of The Night Queen need no convincing, but for those new to Hoopla, consider this fantastic offer:

- A high-impact, enjoyable and educational theatre experience
- Support for literacy, drama, music and art activities, including: traditional tales, stories of witches and ghosts, spells and chants, work around castles and, of course, Shakespeare
- Free in-school literacy workshops on playwriting, story-writing or poetry run by writer Philip Monks, modelled on the highly successful Night Queen workshops (1-hour workshop per class)
- Ideal for a half-day visit – the play runs 1 hour (optional post-show Q&A by arrangement)
- Meet the team after the show – selected performances only, check when booking
- Value for money: low-cost per pupil, 1 free ticket per 10 booked, free workshop
- Special coach price via Belgrade (as available, enquire when booking)

Please note: some schools performances sell-out quickly, to secure your preferred date/time, early reservation/booking is recommended.

With witches, ghosts, spells and potions, songs and scares along the way, Three Witches draws on elements of Macbeth to tell a modern story of action and adventure. The style is comic Gothic, with rumbustious action, original songs and striking effects.

A thrilling, action-packed 60 minutes of unforgettable music theatre that provides a basis for exciting and extensive classroom activities.

Praise for Hoopla's The Night Queen: "A modern take on a traditional story told through beautiful singing, music, acting and puppetry." / "A good enrichment activity to complement the work we do in school." / "The follow-up workshop was brilliant and the children all really enjoyed it."
